101.5 THE WOLF

Since 1992, 101.5 THE WOLF has been serving Peterborough and Central Ontario with the best mix of classic and new mainstream rock – from AC/DC, Led Zeppelin and The Rolling Stones to the Red Hot Chilli Peppers, Kings of Leon and Three Days Grace. Its broadcast signal reaches from Peterborough to as far east as Belleville, west to Highway 400 and as far north as Bancroft. With a primary demographic of adults 25 to 54, THE WOLF 101.5 is home to Central Ontario's Best Rock.

Listeners wake up to Brian Ellis & Dani Stover weekday mornings. Scott Hanes handles the mid-day shift including the Electric Lunch. Matt Diamond anchors the drive home and Steve Kearns hosts the evening shift Monday to Friday from 6 to midnight.

Matty Buller, Ken Elrick II and Dani Stover hold down the fort on weekends.

THE WOLF's studios are located in the heart of downtown Peterborough on the corner of King and George making it accessible to both listeners and guest performers. Numerous bands have dropped by THE WOLF den for interviews and live performances including 54-40, Theory of a Deadman, Three Days Grace, Matthew Good, Edgar Winter, The Sheepdogs, Monster Truck, Sloan and The Trews.

Along with its sister stations HITS 100.5 and CHEX Television, THE WOLF helps raise awareness and support for the United Way, Kawartha Food Share, the Dragon Boat Festival, Sick Kids Hospital and Corus Feeds Kids.

All three Corus stations were key players in covering the 2004 Peterborough flood and helping to rebuild the city through fundraising efforts.

THE WOLF 101.5 (CKWF-FM) is part of Corus Radio Peterborough which includes HITS 100.5.
